Dr. Nancy Cantor

Chancellor and President

As the eleventh Chancellor and President of Syracuse University, Nancy Cantor is helping forge a new understanding of the role of universities in society as SU pursues its vision, Scholarship in Action. This entails a view of the university not as a traditional "ivory tower," but as a public good, an anchor institution that collaborates with partners from all sectors of the economy to more effectively serve the needs of society.

Under Chancellor Cantor's leadership, Syracuse University is building on its historical strengths, pursuing cross-sector collaborations in the City of Syracuse that simultaneously enrich scholarship and education, and change the face of this older industrial city. Meanwhile, these local engagements in key areas—such as environmental sustainability; art, technology, and design; and urban school reform—resonate nationally and globally and demonstrate the inter-connectedness of the pressing issues of our world.

The breadth, depth, and success of these efforts earned SU the distinction of being among the first institutions to earn the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching's classification as a university committed to Community Engagement. They also earned Chancellor Cantor the 2008 Carnegie Corporation Academic Leadership Award.

Chancellor Cantor lectures and writes extensively on the role of universities as anchor institutions in their communities, along with other crucial issues in higher education such as sustainability, liberal education and the creative campus, the status of women in the academy, and racial justice and diversity. Her thought is informed by extensive leadership experience at all levels within public and private universities.

Prior to her appointment at Syracuse, Chancellor Cantor served as chancellor of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign; provost and executive vice president for academic affairs at the University of Michigan, prior to which she had been dean of its Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies and vice provost for academic affairs; she also was professor of psychology and senior research scientist at the Institute for Social Research at Michigan. Previously, she had been chair of the department of psychology at Princeton University.

While at Michigan, she was closely involved in the university's defense of affirmative action in the cases Grutter and Gratz, decided by the Supreme Court in 2003.

In her role as a social psychologist, Chancellor Cantor is recognized for her scholarly contributions to the understanding of how individuals perceive and think about their social worlds, pursue personal goals, and how they regulate their behavior to adapt to life's most challenging social environments.

An author of numerous books, chapters, and scientific journal articles, Chancellor Cantor holds an A.B. from Sarah Lawrence College and a Ph.D. in Psychology from Stanford University. She is a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, a member of the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences, and a member of the National Academies Roundtable on Science and Technology for Sustainability. She also has received the Distinguished Scientific Award for an Early Career Contribution to Psychology from the American Psychological Association, the Woman of Achievement Award from the Anti-Defamation League, the Making a Difference for Women Award from the National Council for Research on Women, and the Frank W. Hale, Jr. Diversity Leadership Award from the National Association of Diversity Officers in Higher Education.

Chancellor Cantor is the past chair of the board of directors of the American Association for Higher Education and former chair of the board of the American Council on Education. She serves on the board of the American Institutes for Research and the advisory board of Future of Minority Studies, the Board of the Commission on Independent Colleges and Universities, the Board of Governors for the New York Academy of Sciences, the Paul Taylor Dance Foundation Board of Directors, and is an Honorary Trustee of the American Psychological Foundation. Chancellor Cantor is also national co—chair of Imagining America's Tenure Team Initiative.

Chancellor Cantor is married to Steven R. Brechin, an environmental sociologist who holds a dual faculty appointment at Syracuse University in the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs and the College of Arts and Sciences. They have two children, Maddy and Archie.

"The athletics program – which everybody is really proud of – contributes to the life of the institution, the economic well-being of Syracuse, and the overall quality of life. We're partners with athletics, just as we are with our artistic and cultural assets, and our major academic programs. We need to always think about this partnership as a dynamic, evolving, and complicated process."

– DR. NANCY CANTOR, CHANCELLOR & PRESIDENT

Dr. Daryl Gross

Director of Athletics

His vision to ensure that Syracuse, year in and year out, is recognized as one of the great athletics institutions in the country, is what drives Director of Athletics Dr. Daryl Gross. His mission for Syracuse Athletics is to compete and perform at the highest level in everything – on the playing field, in the classroom, and in the community. The principles in which he believes include winning championships, graduating all of the student-athletes, maintaining compliance to all NCAA rules, and being fiscally sound. A veteran athletics administrator, Gross is leading Syracuse Athletics to historic levels.

Orange teams are excelling under the watch of Gross. Eight SU teams advanced to NCAA Championships, which ties the mark for the most in school history and the program scored a school-record 368.5 points in the 2010 NACDA Learfield Directors' Cup after setting the school record the previous year. Additionally, an SU-record four Orange head coaches were recognized with Coach of the Year honors for the second time in three years.

National Coach of the Year Jim Boeheim was justly recognized for guiding the 2009-10 Orange to one of its most successful seasons in program history that included a period at the top of the national rankings. The 2010 softball team earned the program's first NCAA Tournament invitation under the direction of head coach Leigh Ross and 2009 BIG EAST Coach of the Year Ange Bradley directed the eighth-ranked field hockey squad to its second consecutive NCAA Tournament.

Head coach Chris Fox, the 2009 USTFCCCA Northeast Region Coach of the Year, led the women's cross country team to the NCAA Championship for the second time in school history. The Orange garnered its highest ranking in program history when it reached the 10th spot in 2009 and finished the season ranked No. 12th. The men's squad finished the season ranked ninth nationally, which is the highest ranking in school history. Both squads won the NCAA Northeast Region Championship.

College Hockey America Coach of the Year Paul Flanagan led the Orange to unprecedented heights in just the second year of the program, including its first national ranking in the top 10. Head coach Gary Gait led the women's lacrosse team to the Final Four for the second time in three years, while men's lacrosse coach John Desko took the Orange to its 30th NCAA Tournament after back-to-back championships in 2008 and 2009. Women's basketball head coach Quentin Hillsman and the Orange earned their third consecutive post-season bid and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NIT.

Successful Leaders

In six years at Syracuse, Gross has put his imprint on the Orange athletics' program, as many teams have had their greatest success in history. He has hired nationally-recognized head coaches in football, women's basketball, softball, women's tennis, field hockey, women's lacrosse, men's and women's soccer, women's ice hockey, women's rowing, and cross country and track & field, adding them to a fraternity that already includes national championship winners Jim Boeheim (men's basketball) and John Desko (men's lacrosse). In 2008-09, Gross added women's ice hockey to the slate of Orange programs. He has increased the athletics budget to record levels by taking donor giving to its highest in history, increasing corporate sponsorships and creating new line item revenues. He has led a capital campaign, which has seen the construction of the Carmelo K. Anthony Basketball Center, the current renovation of Manley Field House, the addition of new practice football fields, a weight room, a lacrosse practice field, a field hockey field, an ice hockey training facility and locker room addition, a Dome field for football and lacrosse, and a multi-media studio for Orange All Access, upgraded Dome amenities, suites and floor seats, and improvements to many other athletics facilities. The athletics department is the leading campus unit in the University's 'Campaign for Syracuse', a $1 billion fund raising endeavor, which was publicly launched in November 2007.

Branding the Orange

Gross has continued to brand Syracuse University Athletics as New York's college team, being the lone BCS University in the state of New York. SU Athletics continues to have events all over the Empire State, including scheduling three football games at the New Meadowlands Stadium, an Orange presence at the U.S. Open tennis tournament and the "Orange is in The Apple" celebrations. Marketing initiatives include SU Athletics taxi tops in Manhattan as well as the NY logo on the back of the football helmets. The athletics department website, SUAthletics.com, is a leader nationally in design and multi-media content. Gross enhanced the 'Cuse Cares Program for student-athletes to engage and make an impact on the community. Student-athletes won the Chancellor's Award for Community Service for the 13th time in a row. Syracuse student-athletes continue to graduate at a high level and have received prestigious academic awards that include one Rhodes Scholar, 12 ESPN the Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and one finalist for NCAA Woman of the Year Award. In 2007, Gross initiated the 'Cuse Awards, a celebration of the accomplishments of all student-athletes, coaches and administrators. It is held downtown at Syracuse's historic Landmark Theater.

In 2005, Gross retired the #44 in football, honoring the Syracuse greats who donned the number, including 1961 Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, who was the first African-American to win the award, as well as legends Jim Brown and Floyd Little. Gross also played a role in the production of the motion picture, "The Express," which tells the story of Davis, and worked to bring the September 2008 movie premiere to Central New York.

Developing the Plan to Lead

Prior to his appointment at Syracuse, Gross served as senior associate athletic director at the University of Southern California. During his 14 years in athletics administration at USC, the Trojans won 16 national and more than 30 Pac-10 championships, fielded 145 Olympians, played in nine bowl games, and finished in the top 10 of the Directors' Cup all-sports ranking almost every year. The University's signature program – football – dressed two Heisman Trophy winners and won two national championships.

At USC, he directed coaching searches and contract discussions, served as the department's spokesman, led marketing and corporate sponsorship efforts, negotiated television contracts, developed and contracted football and men's basketball schedules, directed student-athlete academic services, and directly supervised 10 of the University's 19 intercollegiate sports programs, among other responsibilities. In 2001, he led the effort to sign long-time NFL coach Pete Carroll. Gross' searches also produced women's volleyball coach Mick Haley, track & field coach Ron Allice, men's and women's water polo coach Jovan Vavic, and tennis coach Peter Smith, all of whom have won national championships and been named national coach of the year. Gross was named a senior associate athletic director in 2002. In that role, he led USC athletics' corporate sponsorship program to record revenues and he headed the football marketing effort that broke USC attendance records. Gross also assisted in the biggest building program in the history of USC athletics, including facilities for track & field, tennis, football, women's soccer, basketball and volleyball.

"Daryl has fostered a culture of excellence across the board in SU Athletics," said SU Chancellor Nancy Cantor. "Building on a foundation of high expectations for our student-athletes' academic and community engagement, he has constructed a coaching staff that is producing unprecedented success, including record-setting performances by so many of our athletes, teams, and our athletics program as a whole. That carries over into the strong relationships he has cultivated with supporters of SU Athletics who have responded with exceptional generosity, in addition to their undying support for the Orange."

Gross holds both a master's degree and Ph.D. in educational psychology from USC, as well as a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of California at Davis, where he was a football wide receiver from 1979 to 1981, catching passes from future New York Jets quarterback Ken O'Brien. From 1982 to 1985, he was on the UC Davis football coaching staff; in 1985, the Aggies were the nation's No. 1 Division II team. He also was the assistant men's tennis coach. In 1986 (Citrus Bowl) and 1987 (Rose Bowl), Gross was a grad assistant at USC, working with quarterbacks and wide receivers. From 1989 to 1991, he worked for the New York Jets as a personnel scout and in the front office. Gross joined the USC athletic administration as an assistant athletic director in 1991.

A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Gross and his wife, Lael, Syracuse's assistant athletics director for marketing, reside in Fayetteville with their daughters, Jamie, Jolie, Zoe and Averie.

QUARTERBACK

Junior Ryan Nassib is ready to make the starting quarterback position his, this fall. He had a productive campaign as an understudy to first-stringer Greg Paulus and took a number of snaps at key times. Nassib saw action in 10 contests and completed 36-of-68 passes for 422 yards and three touchdowns. The 2009 Orange offense improved in the national statistical rankings from the previous season in pass efficiency (tied for 56th from 113th) and passing offense (78th from 113th). Pushing Nassib for field action is sophomore Charley Loeb, who made great strides during Spring practice. First-year performers John Kinder from Lawrence High School (N.Y.), Jonny Miller from Mullen High School (Colo.) and Milford Academy product Nick Raven, and sophomore James Jarrett round out the quarterback candidates at Syracuse.

TIGHT END

Senior Nick Provo owns the most Syracuse experience of this year's tight ends. Provo emerged a season ago and made two starts before an injury cut short his campaign. There is other experience on the roster in the form of senior Jose Cruz, who Cruz transferred to Syracuse after Hofstra eliminated its football program. Junior David Stevens is making the transition from linebacker and Thomas Trendowski is another junior tight end. Rookies Beckett Wales from Venice High School (Fla.) and Charlie Copa of Westlake High School (Texas) are newcomers in the 'Cuse camp. Senior Cody Catalina will miss the 2010 season due to a season-ending injury suffered last year at Pittsburgh. He had 13 receptions for 104 yards and one touchdown in his first season at tight end.

2010 Tight Ends

RUNNING BACK

Redshirt senior Delone Carter and junior Antwon Bailey are a proven ground-gainers for the Orange. Carter, who ranks 19th on SU's career rushing yards record list, averaged 85.1 yards per game last season. Bailey averaged an impressive 5.4 yards-per-carry in two seasons. Both will be counted on heavily in Syracuse's run game. Two freshmen, Jerome Smith from Pencader Charter (Del.) and Tyson Gulley from Garfield Senior High School (Ohio) should benefit from serving as understudies to Bailey and Collier. Junior Ricky Azzoto secured a roster spot last fall as a walk-on.

FULLBACK

Junior Adam Harris made the Orange roster as a walk-on one year ago as a linebacker and moved to fullback during Spring practice. Now he is poised to grab a first-string spot when Syracuse employs formations with a fullback. He gained close to 3,000 yards and scored 37 touchdowns in high school. Junior Shane Kimmel converted to fullback from linebacker as Harris did. Junior Tombe Kose enrolled at Syracuse in July after two years at San Diego Mesa College, where he helped lead the Olympians to the 2008 American Mountain Conference championship. Redshirt senior Robert Nieves is a former walk-on who played on a state championship squad at Rye High School (N.Y.). Running back Antwon Bailey returns as a key figure in the the backfield.

WIDE RECEIVER

Sophomore Alec Lemon and junior Marcus Sales headline a strong grouping of receivers for the Orange. Both were integral parts of the offense a season ago. Lemon had 29 receptions and Sales hauled in 28 to rank second and third, respectively, on the squad in catches. Junior Van Chew is another receiver with experience who emerged during Spring practice as a strong target. An interesting newcomer to watch is senior Aaron Weaver, who transferred to SU after Hofstra eliminated its football program. He accumulated 133 catches over the past two seasons and, at 6-2, 220, gives SU quarterbacks a large target. Juniors Peter Bobseine and Michael Acchione and sophomores Cody Morgan and Colin Reno earned roster spots as walk-ons. Freshmen Adrian Flemming from Broad Run High Sschool (Va.), Steve Rene from Canarsie High School (N.Y.) and Jarrod West from Liberty High School (Pa.) are first-year collegians.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Getting improved play from the offensive line high on the list of priorities when head coach Doug Marrone took over the program. The groundwork was laid in 2009 and expectations are that the unit will show even more this fall. The front five's strength lies in its interior where redshirt seniors Ryan Bartholomew and Adam Rosner, and senior Andrew Tiller reside. Each has first-string experience. Bartholomew moved from guard to center because of an injury to Jim McKenzie and flourished at the new job. Rosner and Tiller offer great size and strength in the two slots next to Bartholomew. Junior Michael Hay, a transfer from Nassau Community College, and sophomore Justin Pugh, round out the projected starters up front. Junior Nick Lepak and freshman Macky MacPherson, who played at nearby Christian Brothers Academy (N.Y.), are the other centers on the SU roster. Junior Jarel Lowery and sophomores Zach Chibane and Andrew Phillips will push for playing time at guard. Juniors Ian Allport and Lou Alexander, a transfer from College of the Canyons, and freshman Sean Hickey from Franklin Regional High School (Pa.) are additional candidates at tackle.

62	Andrew Phillips, OG (So., 6-6, 280)
77	Lou Alexander, OT (Jr., 6-4, 300)

Ray Guy Award candidate Rob Long ranks second among active kickers in the Football Bowl Subdivision (42.83 yards per punt).

DEFENSIVE LINE

While the defensive line may have lost its marquee performer in Baltimore Ravens draft choice Arthur Jones, the unit may be even more effective unit in 2010 because of its depth. One Jones has departed, but Chandler Jones, Arthur's younger brother, is more than ready to step up at defensive end. He made eight starts last fall and ranked fifth on the club in total tackles, topping all linemen with 52 stops. Junior Mikhail Marinovich started all 12 contests in 2009 and returns to his end post. Senior nose tackle Bud Tribbey and redshirt senior Andrew Lewis, at defensive tackle, are prepared for the interior encounters that settle which team owns the line of scrimmage.

Injuries have kept defensive end Jared Kimmel, a redshirt senior, off the field at times but when he has been able to suit up he's been a real force. Junior Torrey Ball saw field time in all but one game in 2009 and is another solid defensive end. Redshirt senior Anthony Perkins, with 32 games under his belt, is another experienced nose tackle.

Sophomore defensive end Brandon Sharpe had 3.5 sacks, the third-best total on the team, in limited action during 2009. Senior Chad Battles and freshmen Micah Robinson from John Adams High School (Ohio) and Max Beaulieu of University High School (Pa.) complete the list of defensive ends. Senior nose tackle Ollie Haney, junior tackle Deon Goggins, a transfer from Cerritos Community College (Calif.), junior Cory Boatman and freshman tackle Robert Welsh from St. Anthony's High School (N.Y.) are in the mix on the defensive line.

LINEBACKER

Senior Doug Hogue and redshirt senior Derrell Smith gives the Orange two standouts at linebacker and were key players in the improvement the Orange defense displayed in 2009. Syracuse improved in multiple NCAA national statistical categories, including third down efficiency on defense (28th from 117th), first downs allowed (27th from 104th), rush defense (13th from 101st), total defense (37th from 114th), tackles for loss (15th from 104th) and sacks by defense (6th from 100th). Hogue posted a squad-best 9.5 sacks and 72 tackles in 2009 while Smith led Syracuse with 82 total tackles. Smith also forced four fumbles and recovered two in 10 games of work. Senior Ryan Gillum is the front-runner to complete the trio of starting SU linebackers. Dan Vaughan, a junior, is the other upper classman in the bunch.

There are five freshmen linebackers who join the Orange defense, including Marquis Spruill from Fork Union Military Academy (Va.), Brice Hawkes from University High School (Fla.), Riverhead High School (N.Y.) product Malcolm Cater, Lewellyn Coker from Warren G. Harding High School (Ohio) and Xaverian High School (N.Y.) graduate Mario Tull.

SECONDARY

The Syracuse secondary might be the program's deepest unit. Six of the defenders have starting experience. Senior free safety Mike Holmes had a stellar season in 2009, ranking second on the team with 77 total tackles and topping the club with three interceptions. Senior Da'Mon Merkerson, who made seven starts a year ago, has solidified his hold on one cornerback slot. At strong safety, the Orange can turn to talented sophomore Shamarko Thomas, or senior veteran Max Suter. Thomas tallied 41 tackles, including 30 solo stops, as a freshman. Suter started nine games and accumulated 71 tackles before an injury took him out of uniform. There should be great competition at the other cornerback spot between sophomore Phillip Thomas and senior Kevyn Scott.

Sophomore Ri'Shard Anderson and freshmen Keon Lyn from Miramar High School (Fla.) and Jeremi Wilkes from Tampa Catholic High School (Fla.) are the other cornerbacks. Juniors Olando Fisher and Dorian Graham round out the safeties.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Senior Rob Long, a Ray Guy Award candidate, has already shaken up the punting section of the Syracuse record book. He averaged 43.8 yards per punt and put 25 inside the 20-yard line in 2009. His 42.83 career average ranks second among active kickers in the Football Bowl Subdivision. Long also handles the kick-off responsibilities. Sophomore Ryan Lichtenstein won the place-kicking job in last year's camp and finished the campaign with 66 points, second on the team. He converted 27-of-28 extra points and 13-of-17 three-pointers. Freshman Ricky Krautman from Ramapo High School (N.J.) joins the Orange this season. Senior Max Leo, who made the team as a walk-on prior to 2007 spring practice heads into his third years as the club's long-snapper.

Syracuse University graduate Doug Marrone, a former pro football player and successful coach in the Division I collegiate ranks and the National Football League, returned to his alma mater as the program's 28th head coach. Marrone, whose coaching resume includes stints at Georgia Tech and Tennessee, was the offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints from 2006 until his appointment at SU.

"We are creating a vision for the student-athletes to show that hard work, dedication, good character, honesty and loyalty will be part of our team. We're going to win football games. When I tell you I'm excited about this job, it's beyond that. When I tell you I've dreamed about it, it's beyond that. This is the vision I've always had. I made the decision to go into coaching and started 30 miles from here at Cortland State. Every decision I have made along that way, I was thinking, 'Am I making the right decision so that one day I could come back to Syracuse University?' In my heart I knew I was the best person for this job to get us back to where we want to be. I've always been part of the program. Now I have a chance to do something with it. It's a family. We're all in this together."

– Doug Marrone
Head Coach

"We looked everywhere to make sure that we brought someone to Syracuse who we feel can be successful, who has true passion for the University and community, and who understands recruiting in the Northeast, while being global at the same time. It was a thorough search and we found the perfect guy in Doug Marrone. He is a Syracuse graduate whose passion for the job is unmatched. He's prepared himself for this and brings incredible football expertise to the position. I'm so honored and happy to have him as part of our program. He's a Bronx-born kid who knows New York state so well. We are New York's College Team and Doug Marrone is New York's own college football head coach. He kept his roots and his ties, and is familiar with the recruiting trail."

– Dr. Daryl Gross
Director of Athletics

"Doug is one of ours. He understands what Syracuse is all about. He knows who we are. He played in the NFL and coached in the NFL. He is on the short list of future NFL coaches, but Syracuse University is his passion. He was born to be the Syracuse head coach. He will have the intensity. We can win immediately. We will be able to compete on day one. I think he is the guy for us at this time. I don't think there is a better coach out there. He wants to be the next Syracuse head coach and the last Syracuse head coach."

– Floyd Little
Syracuse All-American (1964-66)

"Doug has a passion for Syracuse University as an institution that is unparalleled. He is one of the best football minds in the nation because of his knowledge of the x's and o's of the game."

Archbold, who was also responsible for funding the neighboring Archbold Gymnasium, it was the third concrete football stadium built in the country.

The coaches' poll was a service of United Press International from 1950 to 1990. The poll ranked the top 20 teams in the nation until 1990, when it was converted to a top 25 format. From 1991 to 1996, the coaches' poll has been run by USA Today/CNN, which formerly had its own writers'/ broadcasters' poll. In 1997, USA Today joined with ESPN to sponsor the coaches poll.

After his playing career concluded in 1924, Simmons Sr. coached the Orange lacrosse and boxing squads, as well as serving as an assistant football coach. ERNIE DAVIS: 1961 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

In 1961, running back Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, given to the outstanding intercollegiate football player in the United States. He died of leukemia in 1963, never getting the chance to realize his dream of teaming up with former SU great Jim Brown in the Cleveland Browns' backfield. Davis' trophy is kept on display in the Iocolano-Petty Football Wing.

WILMETH SIDAT-SINGH

One of the greatest student-athletes in Syracuse University history, Wilmeth Sidat-Singh '39 was also an individual of extraordinary courage. Sidat-Singh starred for the Orange football and basketball squads, despite being subjected to racial bias. After earning his degree in zoology from SU, Sidat-Singh played professional basketball. The NFL ban on African-American players eliminated pro football as an option.

The University honored the memory of Sidat-Singh by retiring Singh's #19 basketball jersey in 2005.

In 1943, Sidat-Singh passed the entrance exam for the U.S. Army Air Corps and was assigned to the segregated armed forces' only pilots training program for African Americans: the Tuskegee Airmen. Just days after earning his pilot's wings, Sidat-Singh was on a training mission, when the engine of his P-40 failed, forcing him to parachute into Lake Huron. His body was found a week later. First Lieutenant Wilmeth Sidat-Singh, U.S. Army Air Corps, is buried at Arlington National Cemetery.

"Wilmeth Sidat-Singh was a pioneer in everything that he did," said SU Assistant Vice President for Program Development Larry Martin. "He was a remarkable individual, a two-sport star and an outstanding student. Until now, his story has only been known to a few."

An All-New York City basketball player at DeWitt Clinton High School, Sidat-Singh led his Bronx team to the Public School Athletic League (PSAL) city championship in 1933-34. Despite his talent and credentials, Syracuse University was the only school to offer him a scholarship. At SU, the six-foot, 190-pound Sidat-Singh led the Orange to three straight winning seasons.

A hero and leader on campus, Sidat-Singh also joined the football team in his sophomore year after assistant coach Roy Simmons Sr. spotted him throwing a 55-yard pass, flat-footed, in an intramural game. He was subject to the indignities plaguing many African-Americans when the Orange traveled to southern states to play. Officials from some of the schools SU traveled to play prevented Sidat-Singh from playing, citing segregation laws. He was banned from the 1937 game at Maryland, which the Orange lost 13-0. One year later, when the teams met in Archbold Stadium, Sidat-Singh helped SU to a 53-0 triumph against the Terrapins. He played halfback in Syracuse's single-wing offense, a position similar to today's quarterback.

In an article for The Syracusan magazine, Don Hallock '38 described the pre-med zoology major as "an omnivorous reader…more interested in a sheepskin than a pigskin."

Sidat-Singh's Syracuse football teammates included Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty '39, the storied head coach at Michigan State, and Marty Glickman '39, the radio voice of New York City sports for half a century. In 1938, legendary sportswriter Grantland Rice came to Syracuse to scout Rose Bowl-bound Cornell. After watching Sidat-Singh engineer a stunning 19-17 upset for Syracuse — including six passes for 150 yards and 3 touchdowns in the final 9 minutes — Rice ranked Sidat-Singh with Sid Luckman and Sammy Baugh, the greatest throwing arms of the era.

After graduation, Sidat-Singh played with the Syracuse Reds, one of the few racially integrated professional basketball teams of the barnstorming era. On December 1, 1939, the Reds defeated the Original Celtics 40-37 in Watertown, New York. Sidat-Singh scored 14. A year later, he joined the Harlem Renaissance (or "Rens"), the most famous of the African American barnstorming teams.

Sidat-Singh was born Wilmeth Webb, the son of Elias Webb, a Washington pharmacist, and Pauline Webb. Both of his parents were African Americans. Elias Webb died when Wilmeth was a child. Pauline Webb then married Dr. Samuel Sidat-Singh, then a medical student who had come to the United States to study at Howard University. Dr. Sidat-Singh adopted Wilmeth and moved the family to West 135th Street in Harlem, where he practiced family medicine for many years.

Hall of Fame coach Ben Schwartzwalder led the Orange to its only National Championship in 1959 and trained such future National Football League stars as Jim Brown, as well as Ernie Davis, the first African-American to win the Heisman Trophy. He amassed a 152-91-3 record from 1949 to 1973.

Wilmeth Sidat-Singh, one of the first African-American quarterbacks to play college football, led SU to a stunning 19-17 comeback win against Cornell. Among Sidat-Singh's teammates were Olympic sprinter and legendary sports announcer Marty Glickman and the great Michigan State coach Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty. Sidat-Singh's SU basketball jersey was retired in February, 2005.

A member of Munn's coaching staff, Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty, was also inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, in 1984. The Orange program enjoyed its 300th overall win, a 28-7 victory against Temple.

Reaves Baysinger became head coach and promptly changed the Orange's uniform from a blue jersey with orange numbers to white to go along with the khaki moleskin pants. He led SU to a 3-6 record.

1948
In the final year for head coach Reaves Baysinger, the Orange posted a 1-8 record.

Ben Schwartzwalder was hired as head coach after the Orange had just completed its fifth straight losing season. That stretch is still the longest in SU history.

Robert Fleck moved to guard and earned his second consecutive All-America award as the Orange finished 5-3-1 during head coach Ben Schwartzwalder's fifth season at the helm.

1954
A halfback from Long Island, well down on the pre-season depth chart, was issued jersey number 44. His name was Jim Brown.

1955
The Syracuse defense shined as it only allowed 35 pass completions on 95 attempts – still SU records for the fewest completions and attempts by opponents in SU football history. Against Army, the Orange did not allow a completion.

1956
With a bowl bid on the line in the regular season finale versus Colgate, Jim Brown scored an NCAA record 43 points in SU's 61-7 victory. The Orange finished the regular season with a 7-1 record, earning an invitation to the Cotton Bowl, where it lost to TCU, 28-27. Brown broke the SU rushing record with 986 yards and earned first team All-America honors. He went on to a hall of fame career with the NFL's Cleveland Browns after he was the sixth overall selection by Cleveland in the 1957 NFL Draft. In 1995, Brown was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

1957
Syracuse recorded the 300th win in the program's history with a 26-9 victory against Nebraska.

1958
Tackle Ronald Luciano earned All-America honors, leading the Orange to an 8-2 record and an Orange Bowl appearance. SU lost to Oklahoma, 21-6.

1959 • NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
Undefeated, untied, and national champions, the Orange capped off an 11-0 season with its first bowl win, a 23-14 victory against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse enjoyed its finest time on the gridiron, pulverizing its foes both offensively and defensively. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 games. On offense, the Orange averaged 451 yards per game. Three SU student-athletes earned All-America honors, including guard Roger Davis, end Fred Mautino and tackle Robert Yates. Davis was the seventh overall selection by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft.

1960
Ernie Davis earned the first of two All-America awards playing halfback for the 7-2 Orange. The Philadelphia Eagles selected fullback Art Baker with the 14th overall pick in the 1961 NFL Draft.

1961
Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the first African-American to receive college football's most prestigious award. Along the way, he broke Jim Brown's SU career rushing record and closed his career by leading the Orange to a Liberty Bowl win against Miami. Less than two years later, Davis died of leukemia. Davis was the top pick in the 1962 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins (who traded his rights to Cleveland) and in the 1962 AFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills. In 1979 Davis was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame.

THE SYRACUSE EIGHT

In 1970, a group of Syracuse University football team members, known today as the "Syracuse 8", showed extraordinary courage and commitment by calling for the equal treatment of student-athletes and a diverse coaching staff. As talented scholarship athletes, these men were aware of the potential consequences of their actions. Despite this risk, they took a strong, principled stand. When their calls for action were not honored, they made the difficult decision to leave the team and give up a game they loved and the potential professional success it could bring.

Syracuse University honors the courage and commitment of these men to stand up for the principles of fairness and equality – and today they stand as a beacon for us as we work each day toward a more just university, community and society.

Although mistakenly dubbed the "Syracuse 8" by media reports in 1970, the group included nine individuals. They are Gregory Allen '72, Richard Bulls '73, John Godbolt '73, Dana Harrell '71, G73, John Lobon '73, Clarence "Bucky" McGill '72, A. Alif Muhammad '71, Duane Walker '80 and Ron Womack '71.

At a special ceremony in October, 2006, Syracuse University Chancellor and President Nancy Cantor awarded these former Orange football players SU's Chancellor's Medal.

"These events celebrate the courage and determination of the 'Syracuse 8' to stand up for their values and principles, even in the face of great personal sacrifice," Cantor said. "These alumni are emblematic of the values we want for our students and for ourselves when we face critical issues of justice and equality. Their courage 36 years ago stands today as a beacon and lesson for all of us as we continue to strive for a more just university, community and society."

The group was also recognized at halftime of the Syracuse football game against Louisville the next day. During the ceremony the group was presented with their SU Letterman's jackets, which they never received after leaving the team.

"This is an awesome recognition of men who stood up for something they truly believed would make the world a better place," said SU Director of Athletics Daryl Gross. "These are men who sacrificed playing the sport they loved to stimulate conversation and action that would create change and needed awareness. This is a celebration of their tremendous courage, commitment and bravery. This is about welcoming back our family and recognizing."

In 2005, several of the players returned to campus for a special panel discussion on the events surrounding the "Syracuse 8." Following that event, alumnus Art Monk '80 led an effort to create a special University committee to consider, and ultimately plan, a formal SU recognition and honoring of the group. Committee members included Monk, Gregory Allen '72, Dave Bing '66, Peter J. Estrada '82, Daryl Gross, Carmen Harlow '78, John L. Johnson, Floyd Little '67, John Lobon '73, Larry Martin, Angela Y. Robinson '78, Diane M. Weathers '71, Barry L. Wells and Roosevelt R. "Rick" Wright Jr. G'93.

Monk, Robinson and Weathers were among those participating in the Chancellor's 2006 medal ceremony.

1963
The Orange finished the season ranked 12th in the coaches poll with an 8-2 record. John Mackey begins his NFL career as a tight end for the Baltimore Colts, where he eventually played in two Super Bowls. In 1992, Mackey was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame.

1964
Sophomore half back Floyd Little, who was recruited to SU by 1961 Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, earned All-America honors in his first season. Center Patrick Killorin also earned All-America honors. The program celebrated it's 400th win -- a 38-6 victory against Kansas.

1965
All-Americans Floyd Little (halfback), Charles Brown (defensive halfback) and Patrick Killorin (center) led the Orange to a 7-4 record, including a 13-10 loss to Louisiana State in the Sugar Bowl. The Tigers kicked a field goal with 3:50 left in the game for the victory. In the loss, Jim Nance rushed for 70 yards, while Little had 46.

THE LEGEND OF ARCHBOLD STADIUM

Upon its completion in 1907, Archbold Stadium was touted as the "Greatest Athletic Arena in America." Designed to resemble the Roman Coliseum and to never become outdated, Archbold Stadium was a trademark of Syracuse Orange football.

"Athletic contests may come and go but the recently completed concrete stadium at Syracuse University will endure forever," stated Dr. Charles Burrows of Technical World Magazine upon viewing Archbold Stadium in 1909.

From 1907 until 1978 the Orange battled for victory inside the walls of Archbold Stadium. It served as the site for many thrilling Orange victories, numerous record-breaking performances – and even a few heart-breaking defeats. But the history of this legendary stadium begins with the vision of generosity of a single man.

John D. Archbold's gift of $600,000 to the University in 1905 made stadium construction a reality. Archbold was the vice president of Standard Oil and the president of SU's Board of Trustees from 1892 until his death in 1916. The stadium bared his name.

Construction of the stadium began in September of 1906 and was completed only ten months later. A natural hollow on the west side of the SU campus provided the perfect site (the Carrier Dome currently occupies this area). Archbold Stadium was situated at a great height, which granted fans of that day a clear view of downtown Syracuse, Onondaga Lake and the beautiful Onondaga Valley.

The stadium's front entrance defined the character of Archbold. Located on the west end, the main entrance consisted of an impressive 40-foot cement arch and two epic towers, which extended high above the archway. On the north side of the stadium, Archbold's bowl-like design enabled fans to arrive in horse-drawn carriages and enter directly at the promenade level.

Upon its completion, critics believed the stadium was impractical and argued that it would never be filled. Originally designed to accommodate a crowd of 20,000, Archbold rarely reached capacity in its initial years. But, twice that number squeezed into the stadium in the 1950s and 1960s. In the end more than six million fans attended the classic stadium to watch football, and past critics were silenced.

In addition to providing the university and its fans with an aesthetically beautiful stadium, Archbold granted the Orange football team a distinct home field advantage. The Orange went 265-112-20 all-time at Archbold. From 1915 to 1927, Syracuse achieved a home record of 61-10-6. Then, during the 11-year stretch from 1958-1968, SU won 47 and lost only 6 games played at Archbold.

For 71 years Archbold Stadium treated fans to the best that collegiate football had to offer. It began in 1907 with the 'sound drubbing' of Hobart, 28-0. It ended in 1978 with an incredible 20-17 victory against nationally-ranked Navy.

In the final game played at Archbold Stadium, it was a freshman named Joe Morris who stole the show. Facing a tough Navy defense, Morris carried the ball 31 times for 203 yards. Morris helped the Orange upset second-ranked Navy, 20-17. And more importantly, the Orange sent Archbold Stadium out in style.

Despite the obstacles, future NFL players Joe Morris, Art Monk, Bill Hurley, Craig Wolfley, Gary Anderson and Jim Collins led SU to its first bowl berth since 1967. Monk earned All-America honors for his effort as a wide receiver and was the 18th overall selection in the NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins.

1984
Syracuse native Tim Green earned the first of two consecutive All-America honors as a defensive tackle. Green and his teammates grabbed the nation's attention with a 17-9 victory against No. 1 ranked Nebraska in the Carrier Dome.

1985
SU began a run of seven bowl berths in eight years, earning a spot opposite Maryland in the Cherry Bowl. SU lost to the Terps, 35-18, to finish the season with a 7-5 record. Defensive tackle Tim Green was named an All-American for the second year and became the 17th overall selection in the 1986 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. Green was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001.

1986
The Orange won five of the final seven regular season games, setting the stage for the following season's remarkable 11-0 regular season record.

1987
SU finished the regular season with an undefeated 11-0 record and earned a trip to the Sugar Bowl, its first New Year's Day Bowl bid since 1965. Auburn's Win Lyle kicked a last second field goal to pull out a 16-16 tie, the first deadlock in Sugar Bowl history. SU's sensational quarterback Don McPherson finished second in the Heisman race, but earned several other player of the year and All-America honors. In addition, nose guard Ted Gregory was named an All-American and was the 26th overall selection in the 1988 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos, and head coach Dick MacPherson was the consensus National Coach of the Year.

1988
SU put together consecutive double-figure win seasons for the first time ever, climaxing a 10-2 season with a 23-10 victory against LSU in the Hall of Fame Bowl on New Year's Day. Defensive back Markus Paul was selected as an All-American, marking the second of six consecutive years the Orange was represented in this elite group.

1989
Syracuse football observed its 100th birthday and earned a then-record third-straight bowl invite. This time the Orange hit a last minute field goal, by John Biskup, to edge Georgia, 19-18, in the Peach Bowl and cap off an 8-4 season. Center John Flannery and wide receiver Rob Moore earned All-America honors. Moore entered his name in the 1990 NFL supplemental draft and was selected first by the New York Jets. The senior class was the first in Syracuse history to play in three bowl games.

1990
The Orange finished the regular season with a 7-4-2 record and an invitation to the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu. SU put the finishing touches on its fourth-straight bowl by shutting out Arizona, 28-0, behind freshman quarterback Marvin Graves. The Wildcats had not been shut out in 20 seasons (214 games), the second longest streak in NCAA history. Center John Flannery was named an All-American for the second year in a row.

1991
Paul Pasqualoni replaced Dick MacPherson as head coach and SU joined The BIG EAST Football Conference. Pasqualoni led the Orange to a 10-2 record, a perfect 5-0 Big East record, and a 24-17 win against Ohio State in the Hall of Fame Bowl on New Year's Day. The 10 wins for a rookie coach has been surpassed just five times in the history of major college football. Qadry Ismail became SU's first-ever All-American in the kick return position and the school's first two-sport All-American since Jim Brown. Ismail's second honor was in track & field, while Brown's was for his excellence in lacrosse.

1992
Pasqualoni and the Orange again won 10 games and made SU's second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance, knocking off Colorado, 26-22, at the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe. It was the fifth-straight bowl win for Syracuse, the second-best streak in the country behind Florida State. Tight end Chris Gedney was a unanimous All-America selection.

1993
Another year, another winning season as the Orange finished with a 6-4-1 overall record for its seventh straight winning season. Breaking records was a regular occurrence during the campaign. Marvin Graves set new marks in almost every passing and total offensive category, while Shelby Hill, Pat O'Neill and Kevin Mitchell also left their names in the Syracuse record books.

1994
In keeping with the tone in the recent past, the Orange recorded an eighth straight winning season, finishing 7-4 overall. The passing combination of Kevin Mason to Marvin Harrison was prominent throughout the year, while the return of linebacker Dan Conley for a sixth season of competition after numerous knee surgeries was a story of perseverance and dedication.

1995
A young Syracuse team posted a 9-3 season and a victory in the Toyota Gator Bowl. The emergence of Donovan McNabb from a crowded young quarterback battle and his immediate chemistry with receiver Marvin Harrison provided thrills and records, as Harrison established himself as one of the all-time great receivers and kick returners at Syracuse, earning All-America honors as a kick returner. The receiver was the 19th overall player selected in the 1996 NFL Draft, taken by the Indianapolis Colts. Defensively, cornerback Kevin Abrams was an All-American.

1996
Despite getting off to an 0-2 start, the Orange won a share of The BIG EAST Conference title and once again was among the nation's elite. A mid-season eight game win streak earned the Orange another post-season berth. Syracuse beat Houston in the Liberty Bowl for its seventh-consecutive bowl victory, which was the nation's longest active bowl win streak at the time. Cornerback Kevin Abrams earned All-America honors for the second year in a row.

THE LEGEND OF 44

Legends Jim Brown, Floyd Little, Ernie Davis' mother, Marie Fleming, Rob Konrad and Michael Owens were with Director of Athletics Dr. Daryl Gross (right) at the ceremony to retire #44 in 2005.

Number 44 at Syracuse University is one of the most storied numbers ever associated with a college football program. Like tailbacks at USC, quarterbacks at Brigham Young and linebackers at Penn State, the running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that greatness has revolved around one jersey number — 44.

On November 12, 2005, the number was retired. It is permanently displayed in the Carrier Dome, honoring the legends who have worn it for the Orange.

Since 1954, 11 players have worn the number and three are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those three — Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little — certainly rank among the finest running backs to ever play the game.

Brown, who played at SU from 1954-56 and led the team to a Cotton Bowl berth, went on to become the NFL's all-time leading rusher and a member of the Pro and College Football Halls of Fame. He led the league in rushing eight times in his nine years. Many still point to him as the greatest running back of all time. Among Brown's accomplishments at Syracuse was setting an NCAA single-game record of 43 points against Colgate in a 61-6 SU win.

Davis played for the Orange from 1959-61. He won the 1961 Heisman Trophy, becoming the first African-American to do so, and was a starter on SU's 1959 national championship team. Davis also signed to play with the Cleveland Browns, but the devastating combination of Davis and Brown in the same backfield never came to pass. Davis died of leukemia in 1963. He was later inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Little was a three-time All-America selection for the Orange. Little played for SU from 1964-66 and led the team to the Sugar Bowl in 1964 and the Gator Bowl in 1966 (teaming in the backfield with Larry Csonka in the latter). Little was the greatest kick returner in Orange history.

In addition to breaking the records of Brown and Davis, he led the nation in all-purpose yardage in 1965, averaging 199 yards per game. Little went on to have a tremendous career with the Denver Broncos, winning back-to-back rushing titles in 1970-71. He, too, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

1997
Syracuse won its first-ever outright BIG EAST championship, clinched by a triumphant 33-18 victory at Miami. After opening the season with a 34-0 victory against Wisconsin in the Kickoff Classic, the Orange lost three straight games. SU then defeated Tulane to ignite an eight game winning streak. The Orange played its first overtime game in school history, against North Carolina State in the Dome. A 35-18 loss to Kansas State in the Fiesta Bowl did not detract from the fact that the Orange was one of six teams to earn a Bowl Alliance bid. Free safety Donovin Darius was an All-America selection.

1998
SU started the season hosting eventual national champion Tennessee. After a 34-33 loss, the Orange defeated defending national champion Michigan in Ann Arbor the following week, 38-28. From there, SU went 7-3, winning its second outright BIG EAST title, and third in a row, and earned a Bowl Alliance bid, facing Florida in the Orange Bowl. Donovan McNabb was selected with the second overall pick by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1999 NFL Draft, the highest spot ever for a Syracuse quarterback. Kick returner Kevin Johnson earned All-America honors.

1999
Syracuse earned a bowl invitation for the fifth straight year and the 11th time in the last 13 years. The Orange posted a 7-5 record in the final season of the millennium. The Orange kicked it off with two victories and closed the century with a 20-13 victory against Kentucky in the Music City Bowl. Linebacker Keith Bulluck was selected in the first round (30th overall pick) by the Tennessee Titans in the 2000 NFL Draft. The University recognized the program's All-Century Team at the final home game. The All-Century roster included: Kevin Abrams (DB, 1994-96), Joe Alexander (OL, 1916-20), Gary Anderson (K, 1978-81), Jim Brown (RB, 1954-56), Gary Bugenhagen (OL, 1965-66), Rob Burnett (DL, 1987-89), Jim Collins (LB, 1976,78-80), Danny Conley (LB, 1990-94), Larry Csonka (FB, 1965-67), Donovin Darius (DB, 1994-97), Roger Davis (OL, 1957-59), Ernie Davis (RB, 1959-61), Joe Ehrmann (DL, 1969-70, 1972), John Flannery (C, 1987-90), Bob Fleck (DL, 1951-53), Paul Frase (DL, 1984-87), Chris Gedney (TE, 1989-92), Marvin Graves (QB, 1990-93), Tim Green (DL, 1982-85), Ted Gregory (DL, 1984-87), Vic Hanson (End, 1924-26), Marvin Harrison (WR, 1992-95), Bill Horr (OL, 1905-08), Kevin Johnson (KR, 1996-98), Daryl Johnston (FB, 1985-88), Floyd Little (RB, 1964-66), John Mackey (TE, 1960-62), Donovan McNabb, (QB, 1995-98), Don McPherson (QB, 1985-87), Kevin Mitchell (LB,1990-93), Art Monk (WR, 1976-79), Rob Moore (WR, 1987-89), Joe Morris (RB, 1978-81), Tommy Myers (DB, 1969-71), Pat O'Neill (P, 1990-93), Markus Paul DB, 1985-88), Jim Ridlon DB, 1954-56), Jim Ringo C, 1950-52), Walt Sweeney OL, 1960-62), Arthur Thom (DL, 1966-68), Stan Walters (OL, 1970-71), Craig Wolfley (OL, 1976-79), Terry Wooden (LB, 1986-89), Bob Yates (OL, 1958-59).

2000
Syracuse ran its streak of winning seasons to 14 with a 6-5 record. Cornerback Will Allen was the 22nd overall pick in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft and is now a member of the Miami Dolphins.

2001
Syracuse continued its streak of winning seasons with its 15th in a row with a 10-3 record. SU was one of just four schools that could make the claim. SU beat Kansas State in the Insight.com Bowl for its 12th bowl win. Consensus All-American Dwight Freeney was selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, marking the fifth year in a row that an SU player heard his name in the opening round.

2002
Syracuse played in a school-record two triple overtime games, losing at Auburn and winning in the Carrier Dome against No. 8 Virginia Tech. Quarterback Troy Nunes concluded his SU career ranked in the top five on 10 different school record lists, while linebacker Clifton Smith and punter Mike Shafer etched their names among SU's record-holders, as well. In November, former standout quarterback Donovan McNabb was named to SU's Board of Trustees.

2003
Tailback Walter Reyes established the SU single-season records for rushing touchdowns (21) and total touchdowns (22) and the Syracuse career mark for rushing touchdowns (38) – as a junior. Wide receiver Johnnie Morant, defensive tackle Christian Ferrara, and offensive tackle Kevin Sampson entered the fraternity of Orange players selected in the National Football League Draft. Head coach Paul Pasqualoni moved into the second spot on SU's career wins record list with 101.

2004
Running back Walter Reyes concluded his Orange career as SU's second all-time leading rusher with 3,424 yards. Syracuse finished the season as BIG EAST co-champions, the program's fourth league title, after a regular-season ending win at #17 Boston College. The Orange lost to Georgia Tech, 51-14, in the Champs Sports Bowl. Offensive Adam Terry was chosen by the Baltimore Ravens in the second round of the 2005 National Football League Draft.

First-year Orange head coach Greg Robinson, who also served as the defensive coordinator, made an immediate impact on the Syracuse unit. The pass defense jumped 69 spots in the NCAA statistical rankings from 2004 (90th to 21st), while the total defense improved from 101st in 2004 to 57th in 2005. Free safety Anthony Smith led a group of four seniors who were selected in the 2006 NFL Draft when he was chosen in the third round by the defending Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers. Offensive tackle Quinn Ojinnaka (Atlanta Falcons), defensive end James Wyche (Jacksonville Jaguars) and defensive end Ryan LaCasse (Baltimore Ravens) were selected in the draft.

The University dedicated the Carrier Dome field 'Ernie Davis Legends Field' in a halftime ceremory on October 10, 2010. The field was named in honor of Davis, who in 1961 was the first African-American to win the Heisman Trophy. Orange legend Jim Brown, Martin Luther King III, Chuck Davis, the uncle of Ernie Davis, and eight additional members of the Davis family participated in the ceremony. The ceremony also included a video address from United States Vice President Joseph Biden. In addition, Carrier Corporation president Mark Cywilko, Lacrosse Hall of Famer Chief Oren Lyons, former Syracuse football and lacrosse student-athletes, and members of civic organizations from Syracuse and Elmira were on the field for the special moment. The tribute to the first African-American to win the Heisman Trophy was inspired by Sam and Carol Nappi.

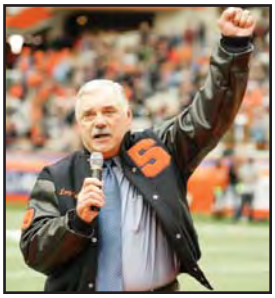
SYRACUSE'S FINEST ON DISPLAY FOR ALL TO SEE



Orange All-Americans Larry Csonka (right) and John Mackey (left) returned to the Dome in 2007 to celebrate the retirement of their Syracuse jerseys.

Syracuse football standouts Larry Csonka and John Mackey watched their Syracuse jerseys raised to the Carrier Dome rafters in ceremonies during the 2007 season. The jersey retirements honored two of the program's legends.

A two-time All-American, Csonka played for the Orange from 1965 through 1967. As a senior captain he earned consensus All-America honors. He had two 200-yard rushing performances in his career, galloping for 216 yards against West Virginia and 204 yards versus California as a senior. Csonka still ranks third on SU's career rushing record list (2,934 yards) and is second all-time with 15 career 100-yard rushing games.

"Larry Csonka is obviously one of the greatest players of all time," said Syracuse Director of Athletics Dr. Daryl Gross. "His accomplishments at Syracuse were amazing and then he went on to an outstanding career in the National Football League, including playing for the undefeated 1972 Miami Dolphins. We salute Larry for his legacy as we welcome him back to Syracuse."

Mackey played for the Orange from 1960 through 1962. He had 27 receptions for 481 yards and scored six touchdowns. As a junior, he caught 15 passes for a then school-record 321 yards. He was a key contributor to Syracuse's 1961 Liberty Bowl triumph with four receptions against Miami.

"John Mackey is arguably the greatest tight end in history and should be recognized as such," Gross said. "His level of play was something that the Syracuse community had the opportunity to enjoy during his career while calling him their own. We applaud his courage and will remember him forever by raising his jersey in the Carrier Dome for permanent display."

Quarterback Perry Patterson saved his best for last, setting career-highs in passing yards and touchdown passes. He finished his career ranked among the top five on five different Syracuse career record lists. Senior Brendan Carney led the special teams unit, finishing his career with Syracuse and BIG EAST records in punts and punting yardage. While Patterson and Carney closed out their careers, Delone Carter emerged as a threat during his freshman campaign. Carter rushed for 713 yards, the second-highest total for a freshman in school history. In April, Tanard Jackson and Kelvin Smith were selected in the 2007 NFL Draft.

2007
In his first season as a starter, quarterback Andrew Robinson stamped his name in the SU record books, including five single-season record lists. He threw for 2,192 yards and 13 touchdowns, marks which rank fifth and ninth, respectively, while his 292 pass attempts is third and his 154 completions rank sixth. He averaged 199.3 yards per game, which is fifth on the single-season list and the best by an SU sophomore. He threw for 423 yards, which is second in school history, in a 38-35 victory at nationally-ranked Louisville. Receiver Mike Williams set the SU record with a touchdown catch in nine consecutive games and also tied a school record with 60 receptions. The kick return duo of Max Suter and Mike Holmes also had a big year, leading the BIG EAST in average yards per return (24.8 ypr). Sophomore nose tackle Arthur Jones recorded 17.5 tackles for a loss, the third-best single-season total in Syracuse history.

2008
The world premiere of "The Express," the life story of Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, was held in downtown Syracuse prior to SU's game against Penn State. Rob Brown, who played Ernie Davis, and Dennis Quaid, who portrayed Ben Schwartzwalder, were the honorary captains for the Orange. On the field, a 24-23 victory at Notre Dame Stadium announced the arrival of running back freshman Antwon Bailey, who ignited the game-winning touchdown drive with three carries for 29 yards. Quarterback Cam Dantley hit Donte Davis for the go-ahead score with 42 seconds remaining. Bailey finished the day with a career-best 126 yards on 16 carries and one touchdown. Nose tackle Arthur Jones had 15 tackles, including four for a loss of yards in the victory. Running back Curtis Brinkley established an SU record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games (five) and was one of four SU players to sign with a an National Football League team. Fullback Tony Fiammetta (4th round) and guard Ryan Durand (seventh round) were selecected in the annual draft, while Brinkley and safety Paul Chiara signed free agent deals.

2009
Doug Marrone returned to his alma mater as the program's 28th head coach after serving as the New Orleans Saints offensive coordinator for three years. The veteran coach brought in Syracuse native Greg Paulus to quarterback the Orange after a standout four-year basketball career at Duke. Marrone brought with him a new system that helped Greg Paulus set records for highest completion percentage in a season (68%) and most completions in a season (193). Freshman Alec Lemon was a favorite Paulus target, catching 29 passes, which is the second-most for a Syracuse freshman. Punter Rob Long, a semifinalist for the 2009 Ray Guy Award, and defensive tackle Arthur Jones earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors. Jones was selected in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens. Running the ball, Delone Carter moved up the all-time rushing yards list to 19th with 1,871 yards. Defensively, the Orange ranked sixth nationally in sacks, 13th in rush defense and 37th in total defense. Linebacker Doug Hogue set a Syracuse record with 6.5 tackles for loss against Rutgers en route to earning national defensive player of the week honors.

SYRACUSE IN THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

SUCCESS STORIES
ORANGE IN THE HALL

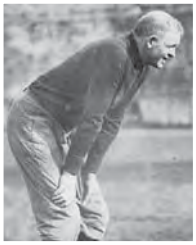
Syracuse is one of the most represented schools in the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame.

SU is one of just 16 Football Bowl Subdivision (Division IA) schools with 17 or more enshrinees in the College Football Hall of Fame. The Orange has the second-best total among BIG EAST Conference schools.

The first Syracuse representatives were coaches Frank 'Buck' O'Neill and Howard Jones, members of the College Football Hall of Fame's first class in 1951. Former head coach Dick MacPherson joins the Orange contingent in the Hall of Fame in December 2009.

Syracuse is one of six schools to have 17 or more inductees in the College Football Hall of Fame and at least seven enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

FRANK 'BUCK' O'NEILL
Coach



Inducted in 1951

Coach Frank "Buck" O'Neill was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame along with former Orange coach Howard Jones. The pair were the first with Syracuse ties to be enshrined. O'Neill had a 52-19-6 record in eight seasons at SU in the early 1900s.

HOWARD JONES
Coach

Inducted in 1951

Syracuse's head coach in 1908, Howard led the Orange to a 6-3-1 record. He and Frank 'Buck' O'Neill were enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame together in 1951, becoming the first Syracuse representatives to be inducted.

JOE ALEXANDER

LYNN 'PAPPY' WALDORF
Coach

SUCCESS STORIES

The Soladay Award

It is fitting that the Soladay Award is the most prestigious award given to a student-athlete by the Department of Athletics. After all, Doris R. Soladay epitomized all of the positives in intercollegiate athletics. The Soladay Award is given annually to the top male and female student-athletes who best exemplify the essence of Doris.

From her appointment as the first, and only, Director of Women's Athletics at Syracuse University in 1975 until the day she retired as Associate Director of Athletics on May 31, 1995, Doris dedicated herself to student-athletes wearing the Orange of SU. The SU Department of Athletics and the world of intercollegiate sports lost a dear friend when Doris passed away in May, 2001.

Doris established scholarships for women, while increasing the budgets to run the programs. She worked with the late Chancellor Eggers and others who supported women's athletics to begin Orange Plus. Throughout her career, Doris made it a point to attend every home athletic contest of every Syracuse team whenever possible. She often cheered on one team in the morning, another in the afternoon and a third in the evening.

Her impact on athletics reaches far beyond "The Hill," however. Prior to the NCAA taking women's athletics into its fold, Doris held offices on numerous committees in the AIAW (Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) on the state, regional and national levels. After the merger Doris directed her energy into the NCAA Council, serving from 1989 through 1995.

Doris was also influential regionally where she was an integral part of the expansion of The BIG EAST Conference to include women's athletics, as well as chairing various committees in the league. The ECAC also benefitted from her knowledge and savvy, where she was a member of the ECAC Women's Steering Committee from 1983-87. For her many outstanding contributions, the ECAC honored Doris with the 1995 Katherine Ley Award, presented annually to a women's athletics administrator who serves as a role model for her colleagues, as well as a strong proponent of women's issues.

It is no secret that since her retirement her presence in the corridors of Manley Field House has been missed, but it is clear that her legacy will remain a part of the Orange forever.

– Kristyn Cook (Basketball '97)

Ryan Durand became the second football student-athlete to win the prestigious Soladay Award, the highest bestowed upon a student-athlete by the athletics department.

THE ZUNIC AWARD

The Zunic Award was created in 2001 to honor Mike and Judy Zunic who died tragically on July 18, 1989 when a United Airlines plane crashed in Sioux City, Iowa. The pilot, anticipating landing difficulties, requested if some strong passengers would volunteer to give up their seats and sit at the exit doors to assist passengers in the event of an emergency. Mike and Judy volunteered to give up their seats in first class and sit at one of the exit doors. Mike and Judy both died in the crash and those in the Zunic's seats survived.

Mike was a four year starter as a linebacker and earned a B.A. ('81) and Master's ('92) in speech communication.

Norma and William Zunic, the parents of the late Mike Zunic, were the first recipients of the award established in honor of their son.

All-American quarterback Don McPherson helped Syracuse to a 11-0-1 record in 1987, en route to winning multiple National Player of the Year honors. The Orange ended the season with an 16-16 tie in the 1988 Sugar Bowl in which McPherson was the Most Valuable Player.

In 2001 team captains (from left) Graham Manley, Kyle Johnson, P.J. Alexander and Quentin Harris led the Orange to a 26-3 victory against Kansas State to cap a 10-3 season.

Running back James Mungro was named the Most Valuable Player of the 1999 Music City Bowl and the Most Valuable Offensive Player of the 2001 Insight.com Bowl.

ALL-TIME LETTERWINNERS

A three-year starter for the Orange, Joe Burton (65) lettered from 1999 through 2001. Football runs through the Burton family, as his father played in college and professionally and his brother played as an undergraduate, as well.
